Chaucer Group announces Richard Milner as their new Group Chief Executive Officer.

Global specialty (re)insurance group Chaucer today announces the appointment of Richard Milner as their new Group Chief Executive Officer. Richard will be responsible for the general oversight, management, and strategic development of the business which includes composite Syndicate 1084, specialty nuclear Syndicate 1176, and their insurance company in Dublin. His appointment is subject to local regulatory approval.

Richard has held several executive roles at Aspen and Axis Re, building on his global (re)insurance underwriting expertise. His breadth of experience in Lloyd's and across international markets, driving transformation and delivering growth and performance goals, and his reputation as a strong collaborator and communicator are perfectly suited to lead Chaucer in the next phase of their development.

Paul Jardine, Chairman of Chaucer Group adds,

"I am delighted Richard has accepted the role and I look forward to working with him. Over the course of his career Richard has distinguished himself as an exceptional leader, earning the respect of his peers and across the industry. I am confident that we will all benefit from his tremendous leadership skills, strong underwriting background, and deep understanding of international markets as we continue our development as a leading global underwriting group."

Dr He Chunlei, Chairman of China Re Group adds,

"Chaucer is in a prime position for further growth and success. Together with the leadership team and Chaucer's deep bench of underwriting, risk and claims expertise, Richard will be immensely valuable in leading Chaucer into a bright future."

Richard Milner, Group CEO of Chaucer adds,

"I am delighted to be appointed Group CEO of Chaucer. Chaucer's reputation, which is built on the experience and expertise of its talented people, innovation and a disciplined approach to risk management, makes it a natural next step for me. I am excited about the opportunities ahead and the chance to be part of something special."
